

This Congressional race could decide who controls the U.S. Congress and America’s future

	Jeremy Shaffer	Chris Deluzio
Academic / Work Experience	Ph D in electrical and software engineering from Carnegie Mellon University Entrepreneur creating bridge and road software maintenance company providing forty jobs	Naval Academy and Iraq war veteran Lawyer and political activist with the Brennan Center for Justice. Pitt Cyber director working to expand unionization
Political / Civic Experience	Township Commissioner, including Commissioner President Gained bipartisan support for sound fiscal solutions and growth Local Library Board Member	Bernie Sanders Delegate to Democrat Convention Opposed Democrat Platform (Not progressive enough) Veterans Leadership Program volunteer
Family Experience	Married to Stacey (Medical Doctor) Raising five children in the Congressional District	Married with three children Moved into the Congressional District after winning the Primary Election
What to expect when they are in Washington	Lower energy costs, less inflation, expansion of Western PA energy sector Private sector patient doctor relationship options, empowering healthcare associations to better serve, innovation Secure elections – support voter ID U.S. border controls to remove criminal activity and provide for merit-based orderly humanitarian immigration	Higher energy cost, more inflation, suppression of Western PA’s energy sector (1) Nationalization of healthcare --- end private insurance, national mandates, government rationing of healthcare (1) Nationalization and Federal funding and control of elections (1) Open borders --- more criminal activity, human trafficking, drugs, sanctuary cities, and national security risks (1)
Economic vitality and growth	Lower taxes, more jobs, higher growth Smaller government, more individual freedom and opportunity Unity around America’s founding principles	Higher taxes, fewer jobs, lower growth Big government, smaller individual Identity politics, exploitation by race, gender, culture, and class

(1) Deluzio donates to AOC and supports Bernie Sanders and Democrat Socialist Candidate Summer Lee